following, which were discussed sepa-rately, and adopted unanimously: rately, and adopted unanimously:

This Convention having expressel its conviction that the prominent issue before the temperance people of Ohio is local option; therefore, Be it resolved, as follows:

1. We aftirm our belief in the principle of local option as wise in itself, and as providing a convenient step to something better.

2. That each local Union in the county should secure a prompt and thorough agitation, by school districts, of this question.

3. That while engaged in this, our special work, the greatest possible endeavor should be made to develop and maintain a true temperance sentiment, by the circulation of appropriate literature, by public addresses and sermons, and by any other means that experience and pradence may suggest.

The samples of work exhibited by the Howe Machine Company at the late Fair were all done by the salesman of the Company. They did not have to send to Ravenna for samples or for an operator. They do it all at home.

With the many new and valuable improvements, with a view to durability and all kinds of work, the new "Howe" is the most desirable machine in the market.
